Your regular annual reports will continue to be addressed to the President.

Office of the DD/S&T

TO: Chief/Action Staff/DDS&T

SUBJECT: Robert KINTNER

REMARKS:

Art McCafferty called from the White House today to state that he had discussed the May 4 memorandum with Moyer. According to McCafferty, Moyer stated that the memo is intended only to cover any report that would normally go to the Cabinet Secretary and which dealt with matters of interest to a member of the Cabinet. It was not intended as an overall reports requirement. He indicated that Bromley Smith was conveying the same information to Mr. Helms.

1. The White House has advised the Agency that the 4 May 1966 memorandum from Bill Moyers to Cabinet members and agency heads, which directed that special reports to the President should be sent to Robert Kintner, was not intended to apply to intelligence production or related CIA intelligence or operational papers. There is no change whatever desired in the handling of this material.

2. Apparently the only CIA reports or correspondence which should be routed to Mr. Kintner are replies to White House requests to various departments and agencies concerning general administrative matters, such as savings bond drives, economy, etc.
